

SHANNON CARSON

Men's Skill – 2014

Shannon Carson is Oklahoma City's most prolific skilled bowler. He has 128 Honor Scores do date and he just turned 40 years old. Influenced by his legendary father and fellow Oklahoma City Hall of Fame member, Steve, Shannon started bowling at the age of 5 and joined YABA at 10 years old. By the age of 16, Shannon rolled his first 800 Series at Boulevard Bowl and 2 years later his first 300 Game at the Greater Southwest Open. Shannon has participated in 14 USBC National Tournaments with a composite average of 204.5. His Five Highest League Averages are 242, 240, 237, 236 and 234. A fierce competitor, Shannon has bowled in many tournaments. Some of his Tournament honors include Top 10 in 1988 Las Vegas Youth Nationals, Won Two YABA Scratch Classics, Two Oklahoma City Tournament All Events, Oklahoma City Doubles Champion, Oklahoma City Hall of Fame Team Champion, Oklahoma City Team Champion, Five Planet Doubles, Two Mixed Doubles Champion, Boulevard Mag Doubles and Two Top 5 finishes at the Bowler's Journal Championship. Shannon in addition to being a fierce competitor is a great Team Player and shares his knowledge of bowling with others. Because of his outstanding bowling skills and pleasant personality, the Oklahoma City Hall of Fame proudly inducts Shannon Carson into its Hall of Fame.
