

ALMA SALES

Women's Service – Charter Member 1978

8/23/1916 – 3/21/1977

Alma Sales is being honored posthumously so many of her achievements may not be listed, but she was a sanctioned bowler from 1963-1977. She is described as having an outstanding personality and a fine bowler. She is a Girls High School Basketball Coach at Moore and Crooked Oak. She was inducted into the Girls High School Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1975. She was very involved with youth bowlers at Holiday Lanes' YBA program. She was involved with Progressive League at Holiday Lanes and served as President 9 years. She made decorations for banquets and was a member of the 600 Club. Her bowling average ranged between 170 and 175. Alma also served as Director on the WIBC Board of Directors for 7 years. She often bowled in City, State and National Tournaments. She was an outstanding person loved by all and very active in our schools. For her dedication to bowling in her lifetime, the Oklahoma City Bowling Council inducts Alma Sales into its Hall of Fame.
