

MAZIE SHUE

Women's Service - Charter Member 1978

Mazie Shue....what a legend she was!

In 1927, she was the first woman to bowl a 200 Game in league play, then in 1928 she broke her own record bowling a 233. October 1928 she recorded OKC's highest game bowled of 267. In 1929 she organized at Recreation Alleys to bowl 24 week with a 2 game series each week. Mazie was one of the first women bowlers in OKC, bowling over 50 years before being forced to retire due to health. She was one of the original organizers of the OKC Women's Bowling Association, The OKC Women's 600 Club, The Women's City League, The Women's State Association. She was President of OKC Bowling Association when WIBC awarded OKC Association it's National Tournament of 1939. Mazie kept a scrapbook of the 1939 WIBC Tournament and it is at the OKC ABC office.
